Greenbriar

Fuquay Springs High School

Foreword

It is with mixed emotions that we, the graduating seniors, leave our beloved Fuquay High School. For it is the friendships and experiences shared here, that will be held dear to our hearts in later years. With this in mind, the 1958 GREENBRIAR was designed for you, as a reflection of our year, both in picture and in story.

We have been the first grateful occupants of the beautiful new high school building. The athletic functions, the music department, and the organizations of our school, in which we have participated, have achieved much during the school year. Proudly we can say that this year has truly been a great success.

Appreciatively, we, the staff, "Hold High a Torch" for: our teachers, to whom we give our thanks, for their patience, loyalty, and understanding; our seniors of '58, to whom you soon will bid farewell; our underclassmen, to whom we leave all of our experiences; our numerous activities, to which we gave our time; our athletics, to which we gave our spirit; our class features to which we give our recognition; and our advertisers, to whom we owe our gratitude, for making the 1958 GREENBRIAR possible. We hope that the challenge for success will not stop with the ending of this school year, but that Fuquay High may ever "Hold High the Torch" for even greater accomplishments.

Principal's Message

FUQUAY SPRINGS SCHOOLS

FUQUAY SPRINGS N. C.

May 15, 1961

Dear Students:

As you enter the protection of the Fuquay Springs School System, you are entering a world of challenge, opportunity and uncertainty. I leave these thoughts with you for consideration.

Forty-two years ago Woodrow Wilson said, "The great trust upon us; Man's lives hang, in the balance; Men's hopes call upon us to say, what we will do. Shall we live up to the great trust? Or shall we fail to try?"

Today we face these questions again. Our concern, I think, must be that we qualify as worthy instruments of Christianity. Recognition of the dignity and freedom of the individual as a spiritual being has been the foundation upon which our civilization has been built. We must recognize that democratic ideals constitute the real hope of mankind, and that the real answer to the call which comes to us from the rest of the world, lies in the spread of these ideals. We must believe in them ourselves and present them effectively to others. This is the only way we can ultimately turn back the tide of totalitarianism and Communism which is challenging us on every front today. This is the only way we can answer the great call of humanity.

Let us be worthy of being called men. Weeping is a bit of the wisdom of Democritus to reverse when he said that a person was worthy of being called a man when he could "meet with trial and disaster and treat those two imposters just the same". Will we be this kind of men?

Sincerely yours,

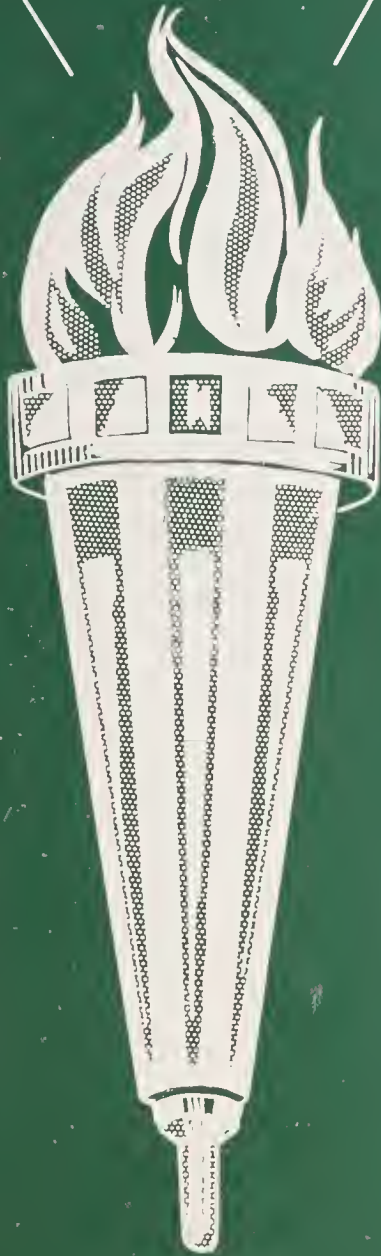

E. R. Farwell
Principal

"Hold High the Torch. . .

ALMA MATER

Come and join in song together,
Shout with might and main.
Our beloved Alma Mater,
Sounds her praise again.

Honor to the green and white,
Banner that we love.
It will lead us in the conflict,
And our triumphs prove.

Chorus:

Sing to Fuquay, Fuquay High,
E're to her be true.
She's the pride of all who love her,
Hail to Fuquay High.

Dedication

With sincere appreciation and deepest gratitude, we the senior class, dedicate the 1958 GREEN-BRIAR to M. A. B. UPCHURCH.

You have been more than a teacher, Mr. Upchurch. You have taught us not only from textbooks but by precept and example. Your inspiration has influenced the students of Fuquay High School to aspire to high walks of life and greater service.

And so, for your personal interest in the students and for your patient guidance as a teacher and true friend, we dedicate our annual to you.

... For Whom We Give Our Thanks. ...

Class History

I, recorder of all deeds, do hereby command the Sands of Time to sift from the Books of Records so that the great pages might be disclosed to the Class of '58.

The pages for the years '54-'55 are first revealed. The officers presiding over these years are Freddie Engle, Berta Tunstall, Polly Woodward, and Marie Thomas, with Peggy Baker as Student Council Representative. The great book tells of many freshmen in the glee club, band, F.H.A., F.F.A., and F.T.A. On the champion football team were Kenneth Bradley, Bill Stinson, and Phillip Kannan. Basketball was popular also. Gloria Sherron, Peggy Baker and Martha Gilbert helped turn in an outstanding record; many boys played on the J.V. team.

The freshmen year is over and the sophomore year is eagerly awaited.

As the pages unfold, we see the activities of the sophomore year. The class has elected Donald Bullock, president; Warren Jones, vice-president; Polly Woodward, secretary; and Jackie Coats, treasurer. Jimmy Ashworth and Martha Gilbert received creditable praise as Student Council Representatives. The Dramatics Club presented many fine plays under the capable direction of Miss Vivian Burton.

Once again the pages fly, now to the years '56-'57. From examining the many pages of recordings, one is able to see that the tempo of activity has increased considerably. Guiding the juniors in many projects were Berta Tunstall, Sarah Cannady, Faye Dennis, and Marie Thomas. As a result of much hard work, seventeen of the class were initiated into the Beta Club. In order to uphold its reputation of being most unpredictable, the juniors decided to have a prom instead of a banquet and prom. To finance this long-desired event, the class gladly undertook the selling of candy, the sponsoring of a barebucue supper, and the producing of a play entitled "Hobgoblin House," a mystery, with a talented cast and skillful director, Mr. Rowland Pitts. During this year, Donald Bullock was elected vice-president of the Student Council, and assistant editor of the GREENBRIAR was Polly Woodward.

The months of October and November of this year will be remembered for one thing—the trip to Williamsburg, complete with lamb chops and a bus which had a regular rendezvous with fate.

The week of the prom was marked by frenzied activity and under creative hands, an Arch de Triomphe, sidewalk cafes, and a quaint hat shop made their appearances. The delightful setting and charming garçons et mademoiselles made prom night a truly wonderful "Evening in Paris." The juniors closed this most active year by holding a candle arch for the graduating seniors at Class Night. Marshals for this occasion were Nelia Adams, Chief; Faye Tunstall, Polly Woodward, Freddie Engle, Celeste Bullock, J. D. Dean, Berta Tunstall, Donald Bullock, and Phillip Kannan. Now the air is filled with excitement and the promise of things to come.

The next pages have been written in great haste, for the hand of the Historian is kept busy recording the varied activities of her chosen ones—the seniors—the Class of '58! Leading the class were Maynard Keith, president; ably assisted by Ellis Powell, Warren Jones, and Larry Bennett. The Senior High Building, heretofore only a dream on the drawing board, has suddenly become a reality. The Class of '58 are the first seniors to occupy this beautiful addition to the campus.

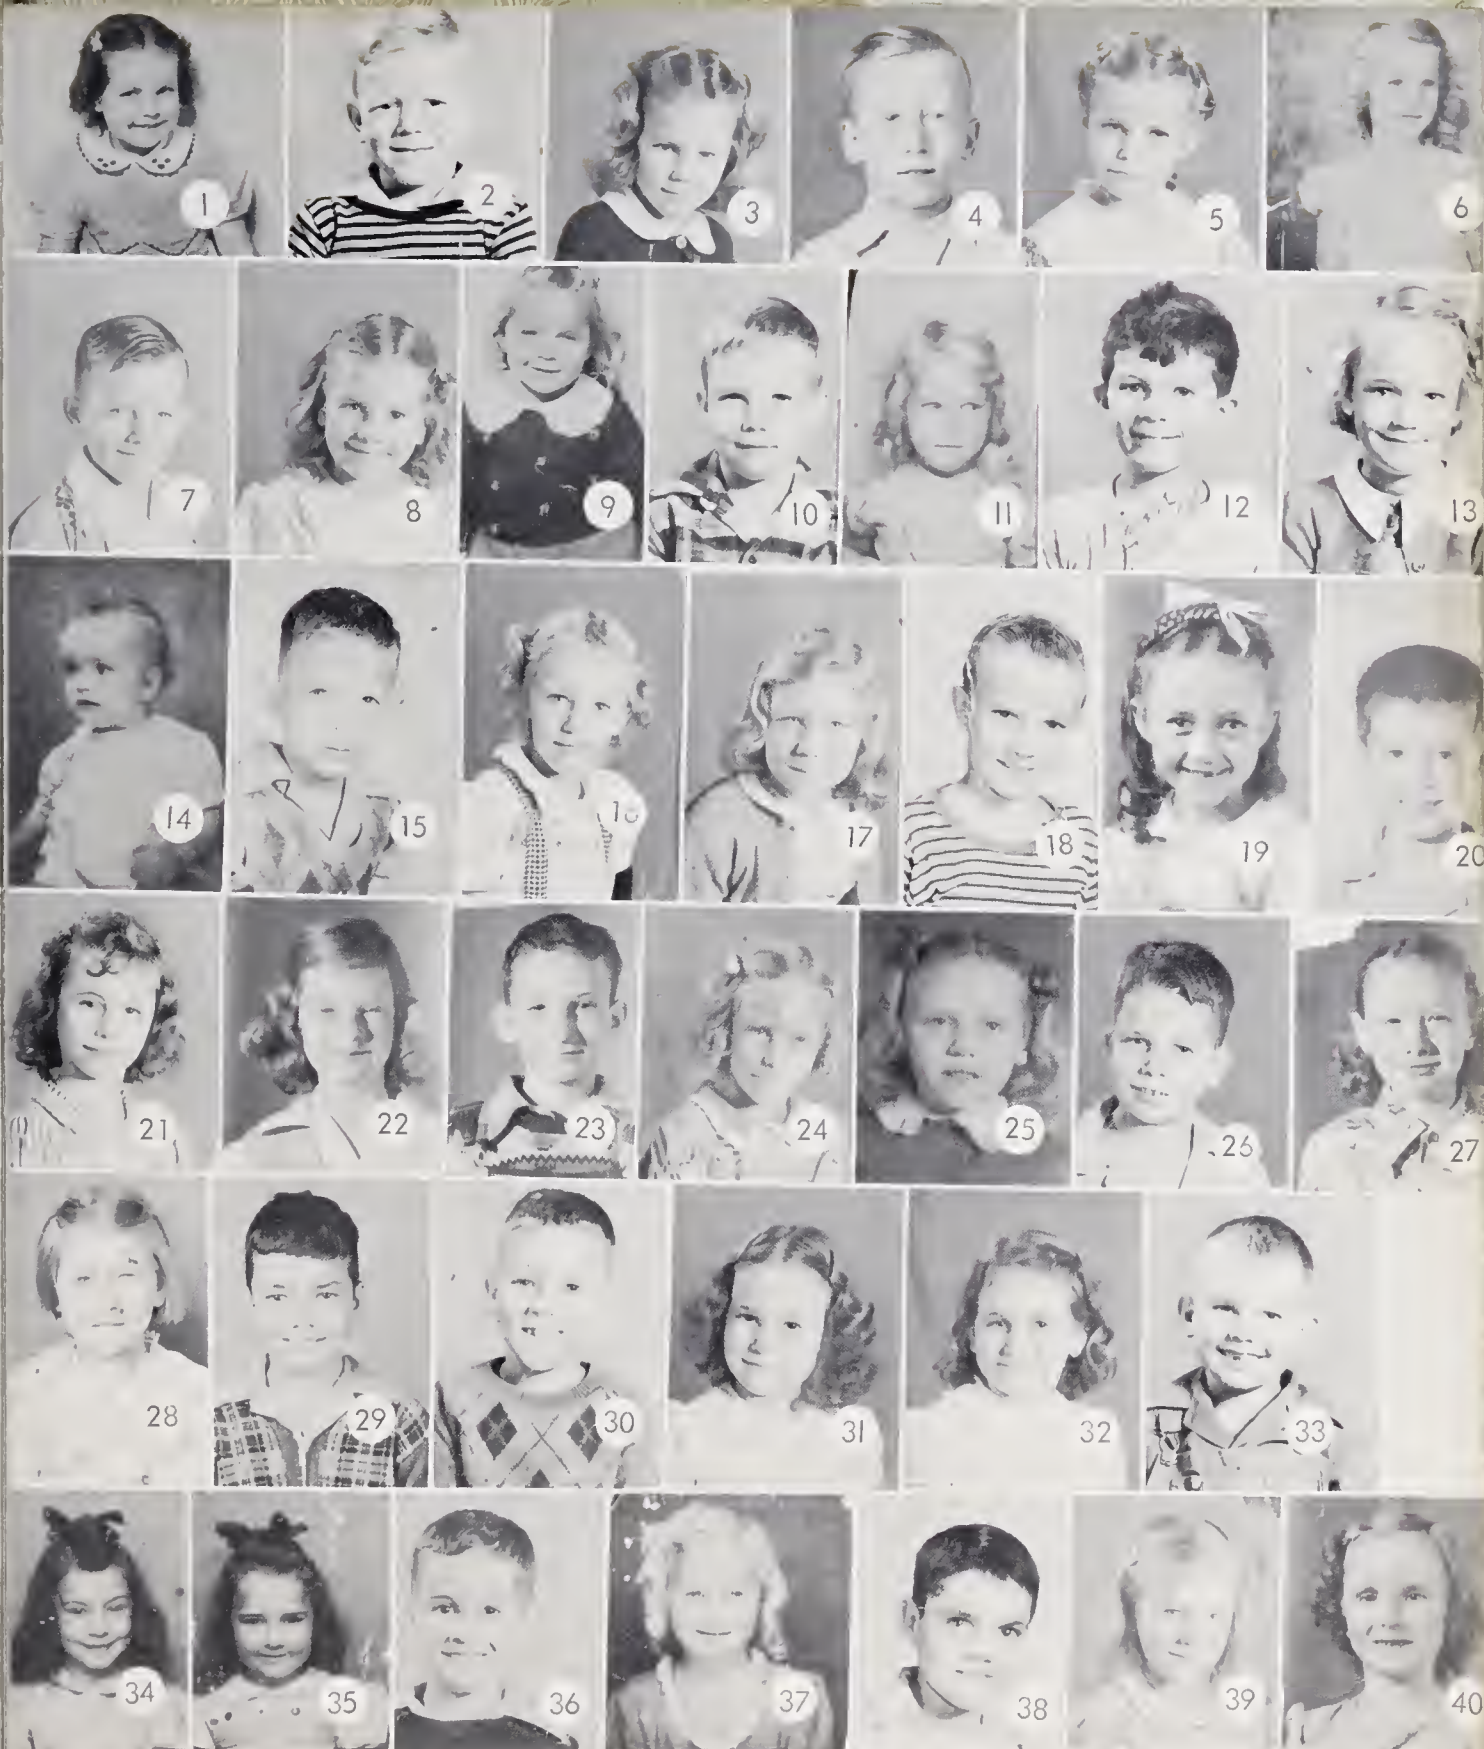

Many seniors headed important clubs: Jerry Honeycutt, President of the Monogram Club; Jean Capps, President of the F.T.A.; Freddie Engle, President of the Beta Club; and Jimmy Dickens, President of the F.F.A. The arrival of the gold and red class rings only adds to the growing prestige of the seniors. At the homecoming game, Lucy Riley was crowned Queen and had as her senior attendants Patricia Jones and Patsy Thomas.

Now the class is preparing for the final and most important part of its school career—graduation.

So the Book of Records ends with this, the senior year, but the Sands of Time lie waiting on the diverse pathways of life, ready to receive the footprints of the Class of '58, who forever carry in their hearts precious memories of years recorded here by the hand of the Historian.

Class Poem

"MEMORIES"

Our years seem to have drifted away, like the falling snow on a wintry day;

But even though they are passed, our hearts are filled with many cherished memories.

Perhaps there's the reminder of the last football game or the day we received our rings,

And then there's the memory of our Evening in Paris at the Junior-Senior Prom.

We know these are happy thoughts of the past, but we are now faced with those of the future:

Maybe there will be days of fear and sorrow or days of defeat and victory.

Yet, even this does not halt us in our wake, for with brave hearts and hopeful minds we shall forever strive on.

And then some day when we have finally reached the top and the Judgment is before us,

We'll know deep within our souls that it was the green and white that gave us the courage to go on.

When after many years have passed and we again hear that Alma Mater,

The beat of our hearts will never cease to be great,

Whenever we recall, our class of '58!

Class Prophecy

Hark! 'Tis the year of '68. Let's have a look at the Senior Class of '58 and see what they have been doing.

I've just invented the most powerful telescope ever, to use for our journey into outer space and around the world. First, I will look into that great ocean of air. Ah, there is the moon which is now inhabited. I see William Stinson, famous scientist, and his assistant, A. W. Stencil making a study of the ground. Not far away is the newly erected city, designed by Joe Lawhorn and Robert Haddock, famous architects. I see Wayne Tingen, famous pilot, and his co-pilot, George Lynam preparing their rocket ship for the trip back home.

Let's return to the good ole earth. First, my sights land on the only under-developed town in the world, Dogpatch. We're just in time for the Sadie Hawkins Day race. Here come some of the eligible bachelors. My, there's Philip Cloer, Wallace Barbour, and Larry Barbour. Here are some of the girls entering this race. Here comes Jeanette Senter, Martha Riley, Sue Ivey, Emily Jones and Janie Moore. Good luck, girls.

Now for a view around the world.

PARIS—I see Berta Tunstall, Ambassador to France, talking to wealthy Banks Clark, who manufactures Lanvin perfume.

TOKYO—There's Jackie Coats, toy manufacturer, talking to his secretary, Sarah Cannady.

RUSSIA—Here I see chief party leader Phillip Kannan talking to Secretary of State, Ellis Powell.

CHINA—Mildred Ayscue and Betsy Carden are doing a wonderful job as missionaries.

Swiftly we return to the United States. First, on list, will be Hollywood. There's Marie Thomas, movie director, talking to Academy Award winner Fannie Barbour. Approaching them is that fabulous model, Peggy Baker and right behind her is Larry Bennett, photographer.

NORMAN, OKLAHOMA—Coach Jimmy Rex Dickens ends another successful year as his football team remained undefeated for the third straight year.

INDIANAPOLIS—It's time for the big race and I see a woman is driving for the first time in history and she's favored to win. Good luck to Lucy Riley.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—In my view I see the President of the United States, Maynard Keith, talking to Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Luther Oliver. There are Senators Gloria Sherron and Martha Gilbert, along with their Secretaries, Shirley Jones and Myrtle Ragland.

NEW YORK—First, I see the Metropolitan Opera House. Performing before a full house is pianist Polly Woodward and soprano Patricia Jones. Ah, there's the New York Times building. Standing outside is the editor, Kenneth Bradley talking to columnist Martha Fuquay.

Now my sights fall on dear ole Fuquay. Many have returned to their homeland. There's the drugstore, I see the owner, Donald Bullock, talking to the Mayor, Jerry Honeycutt. The Mayor is pleased at the work of Doctors Oscar Jones and Nelia Adams. Their nurses, Linda and Marie Smith also deserve a lot of credit. The next stop is the barber shop operated by Billy Brown, who is trying to figure out a way to cut balding Jimmy Ashworth's hair. Next to the barber shop is Clayton's Jewelry Shop, operated by Dick Clayton. He's showing Betty Sandy, Patsy Spivey, and Barbara McCulloch some beautiful diamonds. There is the television station under the direction of Willard Currin. Tonight Bobby Gilmore is having a host of guests on his show, Toast of the Town. Appearing on it will be Nobel Prize Winner Patsy Thomas, who has invented a cure for cancer. Also appearing will be the dancing team of Jimmy Jones and Nina Callis along with comedian Edgar Stephenson and Bobby Thomas and his Crazy Kats. The Baptist Church is under the direction of the Reverend Eddie Ragan. Talking things over with him is Celeste Bullock, Director of Religious Education. The scene swiftly changes and I see the new high school. There is the principal, Warren Jones, talking to his secretary, Faye Dennis. The school boasts a good faculty. There's Jean Capps, Bonnie Currin, Marie Dupree, Bob Farabow, Jeanette Black, and Marie Jones. There's the bank and its president, Kenneth Humphries, talking to the cashiers, Delores Brown, Grace Honeycutt, and Lawrence Stephenson. In walks David Holland, manager of Cornell-Dubilier and Kenneth Rowland, manager of Wake Manufacturing Company. Mr. Holland is telling everyone the good work Peggy Brown, Margaret Vuncannon, and Parthenia Lynam are doing. There's Phyllis Sherman's Beauty Shop. Inside is Mamie Woolard, housewife, and Faye Tunstall, author of the best seller, "What Happened to Kruschev."

The scene changes to the courtroom and these Judge J. D. Dean is talking to Chief of Police, Tom Tyndall.

Suddenly the sights are closed over the future. It is time to put away my telescope and return to the present. The time has arrived for us to don our caps and gowns and await our day of achievement, the day of graduation.

Seated: Patsy Thomas, Marie Thomas, Donald Bullock, ing: Jayne Stephenson, Lewis Love, Richard Engle, Phillip

Mrs. Sparks, Advisor; Martha Gilbert, Diana Dale. Stand- Kannan, Freddie Engle, Bobby Crabtree, Gloria Sherron.

The Student Council was set up to give to students some responsibilities in activities under school supervision. These responsibilities consist of planning, carrying out, and in some cases, supervising certain school functions.

The Student Council is set up in such a way that it is not under direct supervision of the principal, although the principal has the privilege of vetoing any action planned by the council.

The Student Council consists of a sponsor, two Seniors, two Juniors, two Sophomores, one Freshman, one eighth grade student, one seventh grade student, and one representative from each of the following clubs: F.F.A., F.H.A., F.T.A., Monogram Club, and the Beta Club. The Student Council also has two people selected by the president, who are in charge of the school store.

Every year the Student Council sponsors the elections, Orientation Day, Twirp Season, a magazine sale, and the chapel programs. Along with these responsibilities, the Student Council sets up goals and projects which they hope to carry out during the year.

Several years ago the Student Council set up a school store. The store sells ice cream and school supplies.

The Student Council promotes a better relationship among students, parents, and the faculty. The Student Council also takes pride in promoting school spirit, which is important in having a well co-ordinated school. Through the Student Council, Fuquay Springs High School has impressed upon its students the importance of citizenship and leadership.

Beta Club

The Beta Club is a leadership service organization composed of Juniors and Seniors who have maintained a scholastic average of 90 during their first two years in high school, however, anyone who reaches a 90 average during his Junior or Senior year is eligible to become a member of the Club. The members of the club are voted upon individually by the old members on the basis of their character, good mentality, leadership, and achievement.

There is an induction ceremony for all new members at which time they repeat the Beta pledge, receive their certificate and a Beta Club pin. Each member pays $3.50 dues at the time of entrance and this is the extent of the fees charged.

The motto of the Beta Club is "Let us Lead by Serving Others." The colors are black and gold.

The Beta is a non-profit organization. It has money-making projects each year to raise money to pay the fee charged by the County Club each year. It has been the decision of the Club in the years past to leave something to the school. If any profit is shown, this goes to the County Beta Club to promote further education after high school graduation.

It is truly a great honor to be in the Beta Club because it proves to others and to yourself that you have excelled in school work, you have been a leader, your character habits are well developed, and that someday you will achieve your most desired goal in life: so Betas, "Let us Lead on by Serving Others."

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers of America is a club consisting of students who have a desire to become teachers. Being a member of the Future Teachers during high school enables students to consider the possibilities of a teaching career and helps them to choose a particular vocation.

The Future Teachers Club is organized on a national basis with chapters in the local schools. Each local chapter has its own officers and carries out its own business affairs.

Our local chapter is the William E. Fleming chapter of the Future Teachers of America. Any student in the Sophomore, Junior, or Senior class is entitled to club membership if he has the proper qualifications and meets the standards of our local club. The qualifications and standards are as follows: 1. the student must have a desire to become a teacher, or a desire to investigate that particular field, 2. the student must have an average of 85 on all subjects taken during high school, 3. the student must have good leadership qualities and high moral standards, 4. the student must be approved by the local club president and sponsor and also the high school principal.

The Future Teachers have many projects, but perhaps the major one is practice teaching. Through practice teaching the members are able to work in a classroom directly with students; therefore, they are better prepared to decide whether or not teaching is the right career for them. Other projects of the Future Teachers are baby-sitting for P.T.A. meetings, decorating a float for the American Education Week parade, and serving as guides for Open House in the Senior High School building.

Fuquay Springs Music Department

The musical organizations of the school have, as in the past, participated in all student community activities both here and in surrounding areas. The school and community is justly proud of the recognition and reputation these groups have won for themselves here and throughout a large section of the state. The Falcon Band, well-known for its appearance and neatness, is also known for the fine showings musically in the district clinics and district contests. Members of this band have gone on to further their musical experience with college bands of their choice. Replacements are taken from the Junior Band which is comprised of students in grades six through eight and are admitted to the Falcon Band as their progress warrants.

The High School Chorus, noted for their fine blend of voices and varied programs, have performed on many occasions for various civic groups. Although the Chorus does not have another group from which to draw replacements, it is able to maintain its musical quality through hard work and determination.

The last notable group of the Music Department is the dance band, "The Carolinians," formed as a school group for the training and entertainment of the group and those who have heard them play. The "Carolinians" stress dance rhythms with the best possible musical quality and are called upon to perform at many school, community and county functions.

Foreword to Athletics

A sound athletic program is definitely a great part of every school curriculum. Every student is equally proud of his school's achievements in the field of athletics. The faculty and alumni are also interested in their school's athletics.

An athlete is one who gives his time and effort to the sport that he loves. He is representing his school and helping the athletic program whether he wins or not. The physical strain an athlete endures is well rewarded when he comes off the field with a victory. To be a good athlete you must be in top physical condition. This is a good reason for having a good athletic program. It also teaches you self-control. If a person loses his temper he is liable to be thrown out of the game. Athletics teach you the true meaning of sportsmanship, co-operation, teamwork and helps give you confidence in yourself. Athletics help us to be prepared to meet any obligation which might come our way. An athlete has experienced the thrills and enjoyment in athletics that he will always remember in life.
